

Mahmood Khan's Song 'Jagamarra' Creates an Incredible Impression on the Stage of World Music

New South Wales, Australia Apr 15, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Music producer and singer Mahmood Khan takes world music on a sublime journey of pop and folk hybridization with the song 'Jagamarra'. The song is in collaboration with the Willoughby Symphony Orchestra which also emerged as Australia's first-ever orchestral set to top the iTunes chart across seven countries. It is the opening track of his 2020 EP, Mahmood Khan with Willoughby Symphony Orchestra.

The song is a tribute to the indigenous community of Australia and is inspired by an encounter Mahmood Khan had during one of his treks in the country. The EP in which 'Jagamarra' features also made it to the No. 7 position on Billboard's Classical Crossover Album Chart. The song is a thematic and melodic depiction of hope. The song takes you on a transcendental journey of exquisite production, emotionally enriched vocal and musical concepts, and an inspirational impetus that will leave a lasting effect on your virtues.

Mahmood Khan is one of the most eminent artists on the world stage today and has been working as a musician for the past 35 years. He is also the first Asian artist to have featured in the classical genre of the Billboard charts. His contribution to music and various other accomplishments over the years of his incredible career has led to a reigning legacy of music and divinity. He originally started his experience in the industry as a sound engineer for Jam Power, a music production company based out of Los Angeles before he embarked upon a journey to realize his dreams and identity as a singer and songwriter.

His debut solo album featured music maestro Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan that brought about winds of engagement across the scene with over 6 million sold copies. His music took the US radio stations by storm and has been attributed as the first Pakistani ever to have accomplished such a prestigious feat. His live recordings in the Sydney Opera House became synonymous with milestones that other artists look up to. He also created history by becoming the first Asian artist in Australia to top the Aria Pop charts. Some of Mahmood Khan's most incredible works include 'Runaway', 'One Line Down', 'Ginoo', 'Sydney', 'TereBaghair', and 'Another Lover' just to name a few. His contribution to the stage of world music and its inclusion in the contemporary mainstream has laid the foundation for new horizons for newer artists.

'Jagamarra' is a composition and production by Mahmood Khan with arrangements and conduction undertaken by Doug Emery and David Griffin. Doug quotes on his experience working with Mahmood, "It's has been a unique experience. The success of the record is proof of his ability to tap into spirituality and emotion that is lacking in a lot of today's music".

Mahmood Khan credits the Australian radio which has helped him garner engagement through the years. The new song 'Jagamarra' represents the artist's internal complexity and understanding of his emotional depth reflected through the subtle virtues of melodies.
