"We met LP3 when he submitted the Celebrity Stalker song 'Sunburn' for airplay on our podcast, the Die Laughing Records Radio Podcast," says Jillian Elizabeth of Die Laughing Records. "I was an immediate fan, and my partners Dave Dalton and Rob Trisler worked with Celebrity Stalker over time to integrate them into our DLR punk family. We are excited by Year of the Thief and feel great anticipation for the new projects launching between us and Celebrity Stalker in 2021. DLR has set the bar high, and we expect Celebrity Stalker to overshoot and deliver."

"With overtones of a classic, in-your-face, thrash-metal song, Celebrity Stalker takes you on a magically strange journey into a world of self-discovery through the eyes of a young man looking for something only an experienced woman can provide," the band explain. "His obvious obsession with the delicacies of an older woman has driven him to many untold dark secrets that are yet to be realized. His hunger drives his obsession and the only thing that can satisfy his appetite is Your Mom's cookies ..."

"Taxi TV is the home of the underdog, the bands and artists that fight to get their art out to the masses, and we are happy to be working with Celebrity Stalker as they come out swinging with the release of their new single, 'Your Mom,'" says Ricky Menace of TaxiTV, the company that covers bands, and provides exposure through his show Taxi TV Live.

About Celebrity Stalker:

Celebrity Stalker is a punk/metal crossover band from Southern California featuring a trio of individuals from different backgrounds: Larry "LP3" Prosser, Jason Young, and Charlie Moffett. The power-trio have spent years honing their craft, writing engaging songs that rock, and developing an engaging live show. They use fast and crunchy rhythm guitar, blistering guitar solos, hard-hitting drums, and baselines that add a big bottom end. Once the pandemic of 2020 hit, music moved completely online, and Celebrity Stalker was no longer able to perform live for their fans at traditional shows, so they, like most bands, have spent the last year working to get their music out to their fans through live-streamed and video content. Celebrity Stalker is continuing to create new music, with their latest single, "Your Mom," out now. They are available for interviews.
