

Spinster Sisters recognized with Supplier of the Year Award from Whole Foods Market

Retailer announces winners of ninth annual Supplier Awards

Colorado, Golden, May 27, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Natural skincare company Spinster Sisters has been recognized by Whole Foods Market as a winner of the grocer's ninth-annual Supplier Awards, taking home the honor of Supplier of the Year, Rocky Mountain Region. The Whole Foods Market Supplier Awards distinguish 42 companies that raised the bar in 2020, including local, regional and national brands across all product categories.

“We at Spinster Sisters are thrilled and honored to accept the Supplier of the Year award from Whole Foods Market,” said Kelly Perkins, Founder at Spinster Sisters. “We are especially proud of our innovative products and commitment to sustainability. We look forward to expanding and deepening our relationship with Whole Foods Market.”

“Spinster Sisters is a standout supplier in the Rocky Mountain region that we are proud to recognize and celebrate by awarding them with the regional Supplier of the Year award,” said Emily Blong, Senior Team Leader, Whole Body Product Coordinator at Whole Foods Market Rocky Mountain Region. “They’ve raised the bar this year in their ability to pivot and innovate quickly to provide new and relevant products that meet Whole Foods Market’s rigorous quality standards.”
