

TDS Corporate Strengthens Australia / New Zealand Team

TDS Corporate Appoint Adam Townsend as New Client Director

Japan, Tokyo, May 11, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - TDS Corporate today announced the appointment of Adam Townsend as Client Director for its Australia & New Zealand wholesale business. Adam is based in Australia and will report directly to the Head of Asian Distribution, Nancy Redmond who confirmed that James will join TDS Corporate this month.

In this role, Adam will focus on business development and servicing local-based clients together with Nancy and the team. His appointment will further strengthen the Australia / New Zealand wholesale team and deepen relationships with financial institutions, family offices, private banks, wealth managers, discretionary fund managers, and advisers.

Adam has more than 18 years of experience in sales and distribution within Australia's asset management industry. He was previously Senior Vice President with a large Australian Group for six years, where he launched, led, and managed the firm's business unit focused on distribution strategies to financial institutions and intermediaries in Australia & New Zealand.

TDS Corporate has been assisting Australian & New Zealand families for a number of years now and has watched our Australian & New Zealand Client base grow rapidly as we continue to show solid returns to our existing clients.

We have seen a huge rise in personal recommendations from the same clients as we continue to deliver exceptional investment opportunities and feel it's time to grow in the area.

TDS Corporate has recently added a number of new Account & Portfolio Managers to help and assist with the growing demand of clients in Australia and New Zealand with the long-term goal of expanding our operations into both Australia & New Zealand within the next 24 months.

We see this as a perfect starting plan as we prepare to branch into both Countries as when TDS Corporate lays the foundations to enter Australia & New Zealand we do so with an experienced team of professionals who understand the market and what the market requires.

With Adam coming on board at this stage we believe will further strengthen our approach and future with this thriving market.

Media Contact

TDS Corporate

admin@tdscorporate.com

TDS Building Shinogawamachi, Sinju-ku

Source : TDS Corporate

See on IssueWire