Everything You Need to Know About The Shambala Secret Program with Real user Experiences!

New York, New York City, May 12, 2021 (Issuewire.com) -

The Shambala Secret program although a fairly new product in the town but with claims that if you listen to this 22min audio every night for at least 9 consecutive days you will be able to Manifest the life of your dreams...but does that really happens?

That is what is revealed in this Shambala Secret Review based on the real user experiences and results after trying it for 9 consecutive days.

But first...

What is Shambala Secret Program?

It is an audio program that helps in the subconscious conduct to reach a place called Shambala.

In Tibetan Buddhist tradition Shambala is a place of peace, prosperity, and serenity.

And this program helps you create this place around you by listening to this 22min track every night for 9 consecutive days.

Not just that... The Shambala Secret program also helps you in understanding and applying these 3-truths or principles.

Truth #1 - Your Attention Creates Your Reality.

Truth #2 - The Negativity Vortex.

Truth #3 - It's your subconscious that "conducts" your attention.

All it takes is listening to a simple audio track that reaches right into where your Subconscious Conductor lives. This audio track speaks the Conductor's language.

It may sound weird but this uses the power of sound to change your Subconscious conductor.

Now you must be wondering who created this program and how?

Creator of Shambala Secret Program?

The creator of the Shambala Secret program is David Chandler.

David Chandler created this program with the help of the information he got from Aria (the lady he found while sitting in a cafeteria in Antarctica full story in this video).

Aria gave David the information about the 3 truths as mentioned earlier, with that she also gave him the 22min Shambala audio track and asked him to simply listen to the audio every day for 9 days. If nothing in his life changes, he can forget this audio and he can forget he ever met her.

David kept his skepticism aside and decided to listen to that audio track but nothing changed for the next few days but something drastically changed on the fifth day here's how he describes the change...

"It was like the lights coming on in a theater after a horror movie ends. I could tell the Conductor was orchestrating a completely new soundtrack to my life. I was feeling a powerful flow of new, positive energy into my body"

He further went on and said

"Even more, I finally felt CONNECTED to a life I WANTED"

After seeing the change in his own life, David went on to do his research and found a lot of exciting information about the sound and subconscious conductor which is shared below.

How The Shambala Secret Program Works?

It's the only manifestation program based on reprogramming the Subconscious Conductor inside you...

So you can transform your life by transforming your attention.

Well, first David took the audio Aria gave him in Antarctica. He noticed that chants, chimes, and bells were a key component of it... just like many ancient meditation practices.

So he decided to look into why that was.

He discovered that science has only recently confirmed that specific sound waves can impact and influence the subconscious.

He also discovered that specific types of music combined with "Gamma" wave audio tones can actually direct the subconscious mind.

Gamma wave audio tones, in essence, the right combination of audio tones can retrain the focus of your attention.

When your brain is operating within the Gamma brainwave frequency, it's directing your attention and honing your focus.

In other words, it's the brainwave state that talks directly to and retrains your Conductor by focusing your attention on what you do want.

Remember - it's your attention that actually creates your reality. But that's not all. Gamma waves are also associated with "binding your senses" together as one.

By focusing your attention on infinite possibility... At the same time, your senses are bonding...Makes the brain think that you're already experiencing the life you want...

Making it the most "natural" thing in the world to keep recreating it...Instead of continuously recreating the life of scarcity you don't want.

In addition to the guided meditation and gamma brainwaves, David Chandler added two new enhancements, making it even more powerful.

Audios are recorded in a 3-Dimensional soundscape.

3-Dimensional sound helps stimulate new neural pathways inside the brain.

In other words, it helps give your brain the avenues it needs to continually recreate itself.

If you're going to continually experience a new reality, your brain needs new neural pathways.

The next enhancement is the use of subconscious messaging...

Which, according to some neuroscientists, is 500,000 times more powerful than "conscious messaging."

The Shambala Secret is so powerful, yet quick and simple to use... hence we have arranged a FREE audio track called The Golden Journey by David Chandler himself just for you to try and see its power.
