

Up-and-Coming Music Artist Quantum is giving his Late Younger Brother a Tribute Through ‘Powered by Juni’

Prolific rapper Quantum has come up with his latest track ‘Powered by Juni’, a tribute to his younger brother. The track is a blend of hip-hop and rap-rock music.

Connecticut, Stratford, May 13, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Making listeners intrigued with a perfect balance of poignancy and optimism, upcoming music artist Quantum has come up with his latest single ‘Powered by Juni’. Juni is the late younger brother of the artist who left the earth in 2019. Deeply traumatized by the shock and while reviving from it, the artist found his escape in music and let his positive energy flow through it. The latest banger laments the absence of his brother and how he has inspired his elder brother to pursue music. The artist has managed to keep the track invigorating enough while the poignant lyricism wrenches the listener's heart.

Hailing from Connecticut, this versatile music artist likes to dabble among the genres like hip-hop, pop, and rap-rock. His heartfelt lyrical outpouring is capable of stirring listeners' deeper emotions while engaging them with an enticing musical arrangement. The latest track 'Powered by Juni' is the greatest example of the artist's creativity and sense of music. This tribute to his little brother shows the artists' emotional and humble side as a person. While finding his brother through music, he found himself.

This musical powerhouse has dropped many singles before like, 'We up Now', 'Try Ur Luck', 'Save Me', etc many others which prove his musical consistency and dedication to craft new tracks. Just like his artist name suggests, he is an element of energy that freely flows through different genres and styles. QUANTUM ELEV8 are the two parts of his name and latter one signifies his brother.
