surgeon and a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons (FACS). He is a part of the team of professionals at Chesapeake Regional Surgical Specialists in Chesapeake, Virginia.

A part of Chesapeake Regional Healthcare, Chesapeake Regional Surgical Specialists is a multi-specialty surgical practice with more than 90 years of combined experience. These nationally recognized surgeons offer the latest in minimally invasive surgical techniques.

Back in 1970, Dr. Rahman graduated with his medical degree from Government Medical College, Thiruvananthapuram in India. After relocating to the United States, he performed his residencies in general surgery with the Medical College of Wisconsin Affiliated Hospitals and Eastern Virginia Medical School.

With over five decades of experience, the doctor is board-certified in general surgery by the American Board of Surgery (ABS). The ABS is an independent, non-profit organization located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, founded for the purpose of certifying surgeons who have met a defined standard of education, training, and knowledge.

General surgery is a surgical specialty that focuses on abdominal contents including the esophagus, stomach, small bowel, colon, liver, pancreas, gallbladder, appendix and bile ducts, and often the thyroid gland. A general surgeon performs a wide range of abdominal surgeries for many forms of intestinal and abdominal wall neoplasms, gallbladder disease, gastric and pancreatic disease. They follow the patient through critical care and surgical recovery all the way to outpatient care.
