Lakewood, Jun 23, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Breathing life back into the monotonous hip-hop and rap genre, an artist who is set to amaze the music world with his terrific rap and songwriting skills is AR Star. The tremendously talented Rap artist from the DMV area has emerged on the scene with an eagerness to please all with his unique dynamics and is essentially doing so with his hard-hitting rap pieces. Brining back authentic and classic hip-hop grooves back with his refreshing compositions, the artist through his catchy productions is presenting his authenticity to the world and has already amassed a large fan base. His ability to meld the two genres with utmost finesse and injecting his recognizable elements to stand out in the crowd is proving to be much effective.

Composing his music in a completely different style, the artist is passionately driven to explore his musical territory and has recently dropped a hip-hop rich soundtrack that churns out the rapper's special abilities impressively. The song 'BLEACH \(prod. 1Jack\)' explores a new path to rap and there's no denying that the rapper has showcased an immense amount of uniqueness and talent in the composition. Coming along with a music video, the track starts with the rapper walking down the road as he suddenly encounters a skull-like figure in the sky. With his superpower, he is seen fighting off the devil. In a parallel scenario, the artist performs in an underground basement with his peers, grooving consistently to the song title, Bleach. The way he bangs his head to the word Bleach pumps up the mood and sticks to the mind for a very long time. An incredibly catchy and well-thought performance, the song hooks the attention with the rapper's memorable expression.

Coming from Washington DC, AR Star likes to rap about his life and everything he has been through to strike a genuine chord with the audience. The artist's openness, unmistakable vocal tone, groove-worthy beats, and unique storytelling approach, everything is laced with perfection to contribute the perfect pace to the song. Built under the label 95 GMAPCLAN, the song, 'BLEACH (prod. 1Jack)', helps to portray the artist's powerful musicality to a great extent. It works as a definite highlight of his unwavering confidence. The artist is not just a mere performer but an artist with a clear artistic sense who knows what he brings to the scene. With great energy, the artist raps to steer the attention and is successful in his attempt to impress all.
