

Columbus Haunted House Offers Summer Thrills and ‘Scream Peek’ of New Location

Columbus' newest Haunted Attraction offers thrill seekers an exclusive preview of the scares to come this Fall

United States, Ohio, Jun 29, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - A popular Haunted Attraction in the Columbus area has spent the last two years moving into a bigger location, and they're giving thrill-seekers a sneak peek of their new terrors - in the middle of the summer.

The all-new Carnage Haunted Attraction, on Refugee Road in Columbus, will be opening "Summer Frights Scream Peek", a limited summer preview, on July 9th and 10th. The attraction, which previously operated in a small location on Alum Creek Drive, operated from 2017 to 2019 to rave reviews and began the move to a new 60,000 square foot location in early 2020. Unable to open its new location for the 2020 season due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, the attraction plans to fully reopen its new location this autumn.

"All people have monsters deep inside, but some monsters are never satisfied," says co-owner Jason Mccollum, "They reside here at Carnage."

The event features a preview of the venue's "Bayou" attraction, which features high-intensity scare actors, sophisticated animatronics, special effects, and detailed sets. A second haunted attraction is expected to open for the fall 2021 season. Thrill-seekers and horror fans will be able to get an exclusive preview of the highly-anticipated indoor attraction before the general public can experience the full show this coming fall.

"Carnage is back with new monsters and scares! We can't wait for Columbus to see the Carnage we have unleashed for them!," says co-owner Mia Vitale Reidmiller.

"Summer Frights Scream Peek" will be open July 9th and 10th. Limited tickets are available for this exclusive event, and organizers urge attendees to book theirs in advance, as the event is expected to sell out. Admission to the event starts at $20 per person, and tickets can be purchased via their website, CarnageHauntedHouse.com

Carnage Haunted House is located at 3770 Refugee Road, Columbus, OH 43232.
