Get to know Emergency Physician Dr. Dee M. L'Archeveque, who serves patients throughout the State of California.

New York, New York City, Jun 11, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - As a dedicated physician for more than 20 years, Dr. L'Archeveque is committed to making lives better. In 2001, she intensified her interest in search and rescue after witnessing the Twin Tower destruction in New York. As an emergency physician, she finds it necessary to quickly find patients and treat them in order to save their lives.

Licensed to practice medicine in California, she is affiliated with Menifee Global Medical Center, Desert Valley Hospital, Barstow Community Hospital, and Victor Valley Global Medical Center.

Back in the early days of her academic career, Dr. L'Archeveque graduated with her medical degree from the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA in 1992. She then went on to serve her internship and residency in emergency medicine at Alameda County Medical Center in 1993 and 1997, respectively.

A Fellow of the American College of Emergency Physicians (FACEP), she is board-certified in emergency medicine by the American Board of Emergency Medicine (ABEM). The ABEM certifies emergency physicians who meet its educational, professional standing, and examination standards.

Currently, Dr. L'Archeveque is the spokesperson and founder of Kestrelfindme.com, a branch of A Ran-Dee Company. Wanting to help responsibly, she illustrates beneficial unmanned systems to improve and save people.

Emergency medicine, also known as trauma and emergency medicine, is the medical specialty concerned with the care of life-threatening medical conditions or injuries requiring immediate medical attention. They are trained to care for a wide range of problems that require emergent medical help. These problems are often serious and may be life-threatening.
