Throughout his line of work, Dr. Mangar has published numerous abstracts and papers and continues to further his contribution through clinical and academic research avenues. He also serves as a Voluntary Assistant Professor for the Department of Surgery at the University of South Florida.

Anesthesiology is the medical specialty concerned with the total perioperative care of patients before, during, and after surgery. It encompasses anesthesia, intensive care medicine, critical emergency medicine, and pain medicine. Anesthesiologists have the primary responsibility of monitoring the patient's vital signs during surgery. In addition to basic measurements such as pulse, blood pressure, and temperature, they measure the patient's respiration.

Outside of anesthesiology, Dr. Mangar owns and manages Tampa Outpatient Surgical Facility, a 1,000-acre ranch, and the Hotel Zamora on St. Pete Beach, is invested and involved with the real estate wellness company Delos, and is working on the creation of the world's first "Staywell" hotel.
