

DJ Prithvi Sai Drops a New Track "DEVA" After a Fun Remix Project "The Lockdown Pack 2.0"

Asia's Youngest DJ's international release, "DEVA," is a refreshing take on the EDM genre soon after the freshly unveiled second edition of the 30-track remix album "The Lockdown Pack," giving his fans a double dose of entertainment.

with a bang with a riveting classic big room track of Indian classic vocals called "DEVA." The song is perfectly blended with real instruments and synths. The track features powerful driving beats that will keep the listener on their toes due to the stomping kicks and rhythmic claps between singing the soulful classic lyrics. Unique transitions are found throughout the entire song as it starts off slow before quickly changing gears into an upbeat, fast-paced groove by adding dramatic synth pitches at different times while also holding back for one moment before diving headfirst into some electrifying drops alongside those original, captivating vocals. From the start of this track to its drop, the listeners will hear their favorite tunes from today's electronic dance music dominating in all their glory--perfect for those who love big room music! With an increasing number of streams across Spotify alone, it's sure to be well received by fans of electronic dance music everywhere. The track came as a surprise after the young artist was already making waves in the EDM scene with the "The Lockdown Pack 2.0," the new iteration of his well-received 30-track remix album. . This album also includes a total of 30 songs that he remixed himself during the monotonous, dull days of the lockdown in the country due to the pandemic. The album is an attempt to give his fans something to hold on to during these challenging times.

This remix album includes popular songs from some of the old Bollywood classics like "Tip Tip Barsa Pani" to the currently viral "Brown Munde" and many more. With this new project, he hopes to introduce himself to a broader audience while also showcasing his skills as an artist and producer. He's been playing at clubs worldwide from a very young age with immense success but wants to take things up a notch by exploring new ideas. His goal is for both fans and music critics alike to showcase his diverse musical skills by the end of 2021!

Prithvi shared the motivation behind this project. He said that he wanted to make something that will bring joy to the listeners and give back to the DJ community playing his tracks from the "The Lockdown Pack" in their shows. The release is also unique because it was made for free download on Downloads 4 DJs. Grab the entire pack from this link to bring the crowd on its feet.
