

Famous hip hop artist Cali Pitts drops new single, 'Residue' featuring Grammy award winning artist LV

United States, California, Jun 22, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Eminent hip hop artist Cali Pitts, formerly known as Young Prodeje, dished out a new single, 'Residue' featuring the Grammy award-winning and 'Gangsta's Paradise' famed LV of South Central Cartel. After a long break, the brilliant musician is back in the hip hop game with his latest project 'Hood good'. The track is an exceptional hip-hop number containing all the qualities of a rhythmically and lyrically rich rap song. The main influence behind the song is his own life experiences that he acquired by growing up in one of the toughest neighborhoods in LA. It has the ability to connect with the audience on so many levels letting them feel that they are not alone in their life battles.

The song exudes an out-worldly rhythmic scheme that has been achieved through clever chord structures and progressive arrangements. The prolific artist has mastered the art of different rhyming styles. The latest song has a blend of different rhythmic and rap patterns that separates it from the contemporary crowd. He always tries to bring something new to the plate that breaks the traditional norms of music. He has derived melodic influence from different genres and added those elements to the new soundtrack. His incredible versatility had secured him a permanent place among the elites of the industry.

The gifted musician is also an advocate of issues faced by the community in the hoods. Cali Pitts hosts a live podcast/panel named, 'South Central Cartel Presents Gangsta Conversations'. He is joined by different guests from all walks of life mainly 'the hood'. In the show the guests along with his presents their opinion about different subjects like sports, politics, entertainment, and more. Their slogan is 'the hood got an opinion. The podcast has attracted the attention of many viewers coming from different parts of the hoods and become quite a hit among them. Pitts also shares his thoughts and opinions in the show.

The prolific artist started his musical journey at a very young age. Seeing his exceptional rhyming skills and the depth of knowledge of the genre, Russell Simmons of Def Jam signed two different deals with him before he even turned 16. He saw the potential in Cali Pitts, who found the perfect medium to express his frustration and emotions about growing up in poverty, gang-related, and being black in America. Being born and raised in South Central Los Angeles he has experienced hardships greater than an average person in the country. That has fuelled him to craft some of the most articulate and thought-provoking lyrical ballads of his time.

Cali Pitts is a well-known American hip-hop artist who was formerly known as Young Prodeje. He has worked with the biggest names in the industry 2pac, Nipsey Hussle, Ice-T, Big Prodeje, and many more. He established his own record label HP Enterprise LLC with his business partner SJ Hazim. He is currently working on a new South Central Cartel album and documentary.

Media Contact

Creative Pathways and Means

sawabhazim@yahoo.com

Source : Creative Pathways and Means

See on IssueWire