

Frederich will launch his own clothing brand with a store in São Paulo.

Brazil, Sao Paulo, Jun 22, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Frederich and Ken Liss will officially open a store in São Paulo. The Skies Project was just an artist's project, but Frederich and Ken Liss turned it into an official brand.

The store will be located in São Paulo, and will have several types of pieces, from its own Skies Project brand.

While Frederich has always been ahead of the game when it comes to fashion and content creation, the brand is now expanding its market.

Frederich and Ken Liss are still on the wave of their latest 2020 release, but they're certainly working on something new for this year.
