

Horror Thriller, Il Migliore Del Mondo & Other Stories Features Characters Desperate for Violent Cathartic Release

With Ukiyoto Publishing

Philippines, Metropolitan Manila Area, Jun 13, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Ukiyoto Publishing House and author Alaric Cabiling have published 'Il Migliore Del Mondo & Other Stories' in May of 2021 in ebook and paperback format. Il Migliore Del Mondo that translates as "the best in the world" is about a nameless nomadic artist who paints putrescent heads, trophies dedicated to his service to the Caribbean deity of death, Santa Muerte.

Cabiling's collection of short stories also includes two novelettes. The first, titled Painter of Dead Girls, is about an artist so inspired by sadism, he puts together a plan to showcase his paintings at the heels of a series of brutal murders. The second, titled Morbid Destitution of Covenant, features an ensemble cast of law enforcers and clinicians, all intent on proving that one man in custody is the killer in a series of brutal killings.

There are stories, like The Black House, about teens so desperate to make it big as members of a rock band, they camp out and rehearse in a haunted cabin to gain a reputation. Another is Love Him to Death, about a race car driver who falls in love with a gay writer who has a propensity for writing vivid, haunting cosmic horror scenes that may seem realistic for a very real reason.

These stories and more pit stark, gruesome reality with illusion. Cabiling uses magic realism in his work.
