

Krisbel, a Groundbreaking Singer and Songwriter Drops a New Electro-Pop Song 'Aroma' Featuring Andaluz the Artist

Krisbel, a New York-based singer and lyricist, is creating groundbreaking electronic music that has become a worldwide phenomenon with the stunning single 'Aroma.'

New York City, Jun 17, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Krisbel, a fresh blooded EDM impassioned female vocalist and real music creator, is satisfying her ardent fans with a new fantastic stomping track 'Aroma' featuring Andaluz the Artist for a bright mood. In a short period of time, she has amassed enormous global acclaim. She is highly gifted, and her goal is to fill the hearts of music lovers with her powerful rhythms and pounding tempo. She creates EDM songs of many genres that express various emotions in unique ways using her own trademark flair. She is more than simply a gorgeous face; her vocals are equally captivating, which contributes to the hypnotic nature of her music. The new song combines inventive EDM production with energetic and stylish pop lyrics and performance. It has lots of energy and positive feelings to transport through the music out and around you, as any excellent EDM should, but the melodies offer much more to the blend. The end effect is something that any number of audiences might enjoy.

The new singer Krisbel is bred in New York but her music takes her back to the roots of Costa Rica where she was born. Her creative exposure was broadened when she started to explore various art forms in New York. She hopes that through her song, people will be able to sense God's healing power, hear her triumphant narrative set to empower their minds and be filled with the only hope there is. Her fantastic emotional and electric tune 'Aroma' takes us down memory lane. This song contains hypnotic rhythm and words that will recall you of the bruises you left behind. This song, unlike other EDMs, contains vocal lines that are highly engaging and convey emotions. It is engrossed with excellent electronic beats about unrequited love. The listeners will be able to relate to it, and the cadence will let you escape.

She works with Andaluz the Artist, a smart street artist turned rapper to complement the spiked electro-pop notes in the new song. He has launched his new album, Welcome to the Quarantine. His philosophical rap is based on his hardships and God's power. The female vocalist is an exceptionally gifted musician and songwriter who can hold her own style against other well-known modern EDM musicians. Show her extra love and support as she grows on Spotify.

Just go for this track 'Aroma' by Krisbel:

<https://open.spotify.com/track/284OQQ5GDjJEWQfSRiTNV4>

Media Contact

The Tunes Club

info@thetunesclub.com

Source : Krisbel

See on IssueWire