

Las Vegas Real Estate Agency, Huntington & Ellis, Celebrates 5th Anniversary

Top producing agents in Las Vegas celebrate their brokerage's 5th year anniversary among their cherished clients, incredible business partners, and growing team of realtors, with incredible potential for the future!

Nevada, Las Vegas, Jun 11, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Top Las Vegas real estate agency Huntington & Ellis (H&E), home to some of the top producing realtors in Las Vegas, announced and celebrated its 5th year anniversary in business earlier in June among its cherished clients, incredible business partners, and growing team of realtors!

Since its inception in 2016, the real estate brokerage has transformed from an idea to a very real, prominent, respected, and personal agency in the real estate industry. Huntington & Ellis has grown exponentially in both numbers and size and continues to grow in the near future.

With over 473 million in sales in 2020, Huntington & Ellis has successfully established itself as a top sales force in the Las Vegas luxury market. An exclusive network of connections and clientele allows the company to bring together affluent buyers and sellers alike. Integrity-driven, the brokerage's charismatic group of professionals are committed to focusing on high-quality, personalized service & putting their clients' needs first and foremost.

Broker-owner Craig Tann has been a leading force in real estate for 18 years, and has been recognized by BBC News, the New York Times, CNN, CNN Unique Homes, Nevada Business Magazine, and the Las Vegas Review-Journal. According to Tann, his company is more than a brokerage. His focus is on making his company a center of only the best agents within Las Vegas. With the help of a small but incredible staff, Tann pieced together his company into a unit of respectable, genuine agents who are some of the top performers in the country.

This is apparent in the company's exclusive reputation. Agents compete for a spot at H&E because of its prestige, track record, and affable, hard-working teams. Huntington & Ellis interviews its applicants to ensure they are serious, experienced go-getters. Once on-boarded, agents can expect quality connections and ambitious colleagues– and as such, clients can expect quality service. Armed with a staff of marketing professionals, the company also produces a library of print and digital collateral for agents to market their listings and sales, including blog posts, buyer's guides, relocation guides, luxury listing booklets, graphics, and quality professional photography and videography.

Broker-owner Craig Tann celebrated five years of growth and success with this team and still sees potential for the company to do even more, and quotes saying, "We are extremely proud and grateful for everyone's efforts and all who played a part in this distinguished path to five years of business! It only shows the potential Huntington & Ellis has for further growth and success in providing first class service to our community."
