

Mesmerize your sense with Theia candles

United Arab Emirates, Dubai, Jun 9, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The Dubai-based Theia Candles under the able guidance of its Managing Directors, Dina and Talia Al Hashmi has carved a niche for them as one of the leading suppliers crystal infused candles, healing stones, quartz, and Amethyst in the MENA region.

These hand-poured scented candles which are available in a plethora of shapes and sizes will surely appeal to your senses and are bound to have a soothing effect on mind, body, and soul.

Theia Candles has been quick to adapt to the e-commerce business module and master the art of it. The retailers are optimistic that the future of candles and retailing is e-commerce hence they have taken this route to promote their unique product. E-tailing mania has been spreading its wings as the post covid strategy to attract customers and boost sales.

As the final countdown to Expo 2021 has begun Theia Candles has introduced a wide array of products like healing stones, quartz, and Amethyst with an eye on the festive season ahead which can be ordered online.

While speaking about this new collection Dina, Managing Director, Theia Candles enthused, “We have introduced a wide array of products with an eye on the festive season ahead. These products can be ordered online or through our Instagram Handle: candles_theia_ae.”

The collection is reasonably priced with candles that can be picked up for 200 AED while, while oil kit comprising of 8 pieces comes for 180 AED and the oil burner is for 150 AED.
