

Shipping Scam in Florida by CaribbeanShipper.com and Michael Macool (an alleged freight forwarder with no license found)

Florida, Miami, Jun 15, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The Strauss Law firm, a Fort Lauderdale law firm, says that his client intends on filing a four-count lawsuit against Michael Macool with CaribbeanShipper.com and Victor A Cardona with Innovation Vica Corp for Civil Theft, Conversion, Fraud, and Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act.

Michael Macool, the owner of Caribbeanshipper.com, had our client ship his goods to his alleged Miami office. However, Mr. Macool does not have a warehouse, but rather, is using a space operated by Innovation Vica Corp having the address 7864 NW 62 Street, Miami FL, 33166.

Michael Macool claims that our client's items are stuck in Customs with the government authorities and repeatedly demanded that our client pay additional fees that are not legitimately owed, in order to extort extra money from our client.

Our client believes that Mr. Macool has provided falsified documents purportedly from the Colombian authorities in furtherance of the scam. Mr. Macool going by Caribbeanshipper.com in concert with Victor A Cardona of Innovation Vica Corp, now wants our client to forcefully sign releases that are not required in order to release the goods.

We have instructed our client to hold off on filing the civil lawsuit as the Broward State Attorney's office is still investigating Michael Macool and is considering levying criminal charges against him.

Michael Macool who operates primarily from his home office in Oakland Park, Broward County, Florida located at 811 W Oakland Park Blvd, Apt F 6, Oakland Park, FL 33311 however uses Innovation Vica Corp warehouse located 7864 NW 62 Street, Miami FL, 33166 but projects as if Macool owns it. Macool can be reached at mike@caribbeanshipper.com or (954) 673-2147 and (954) 480-3048

Victor Cordova resides at 6700 Nw 114th Avenue Apt 935 Doral, FL 33178, and Innovation Corp has the address 7864 NW 62 Street, Miami FL, 33166 and can be reached at vcardona@innovationcorpus.com
