Whether you can go to sunny climes abroad or are having a holiday right here in good ole Blighty, one problem you travel-related issue you may be putting off is what you should put in your suitcase. If you struggle to get the right combination of clothes right or always leave it to the last minute, you need to realise that packing does not have to be quite the stressful undertaking you may be making it out to be in your head.

To help you out, we have put together a guide to some of the clothing essentials you should put in your suitcase for more stress-free holiday planning.

Floaty Blouse

Flowy, peasant, and boho-style blouses were designed for warmer days and hotter nights. Stay cool while you are lapping up the sun with either a lightweight broderie anglaise or an embroidered top. They work a treat when paired with trousers or skirts and we would recommend you opt for a nice white or bright and bold colour.

A Flattering Swimsuit

Although it won't take up very much space in your suitcase, you just need to invest in one swimsuit. Make sure you pick one that you are comfortable in and that you can wear when you are relaxing beside the pool or strolling, playing, or sunbathing on the beach.

A Stylish Hat

Wherever you go, you should always finish off an outfit with a cool and stylish straw hat. Whether you choose a boater, Panama, or fedora, it's up to you. It doesn't matter if you are going on a city break or a beach holiday.

A Beautiful and Versatile Scarf

Even if you are going somewhere where the weather is gloriously sunny and warm, you should still invest in a versatile and attractive scarf. There will be times when you are out and about at night when the temperature has dropped and there is a nice cool breeze or when you are leaving on the plane or arriving back home. You can even use a nice colourful scarf as a coverup for that hot swimsuit you have or to complement your plain white t-shirt.

Classic Plain White Tee

Speaking of plain white t-shirts, if you don't have at least one of these in your suitcase, you should consider getting one. They will go well with just about anything, whether it's jeans, cut-offs, a skirt, or shorts. You can even use a plain white tee as a cute and light coverup after you've had a dip in the pool or when you're leaving the beach.

Many think of t-shirts as being a little dull, but trust us with the option of crew neck, V-neck, and scoop neck, you can find the t-shirt that suits you best.

Daytime to Nighttime Dress

When you're not lounging around the pool or at the beach and exploring around town, you can make good use of that cute new dress. The best way to play it is to choose a dress that can be transformed easily for daytime wear and nighttime wear. The simplest way to do this is by switching your footwear, wearing some evening makeup, and accessorising your outfit differently.
