California, Playa del Rey, Jun 7, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - The talented R&B artist, Skye Shanklin has shown her great musical prowess at a very early age. She has proved her critics wrong with exquisite melody and incredible dexterity in the music video 'All This'. She is an independent musician who is on the top of her game creatively at the tender age of 9. Her musical pursuit began at the age of 7 as she has been mentored properly by a voice coach for the last couple of years. She has also carved out her niche by writing songs and has an unwavering passion to play the electric guitar. Right from the beginning when she took the plunge into the music scene, she was bug-bitten by icons like Pink, Taylor, and Alicia Keys. She also has got the knack of playing video games with all her young friends and she is also joined online by her twin sisters.

The exciting music video, 'All This' has got refreshing vibes of R&B with amazing vocals. The brilliant artist, Skye Shanklin has deftly channeled out her passion and speaks for the feeling of harmony, peace, and friendship. The entire song has been written during the pandemic as she has spent a lot of times in the house during those days. It was a great time of bonhomie for the singer with her close friends and family members. She is gearing up for the release of her forthcoming venture titled 'Be Someone'. She loves to wear her headphones while listening to songs and enjoy the moments like anything. She is a confident artist and can create a song out of anything. Most of the riveting music videos by the R&B singer are streaming on YouTube.

The music video has got a delectable look and the artist has turned on the heat with her breathtaking vocals and enticing melody. She listens to every kind of music but she is mostly turned on by the old classics that have got some of the best narration. Her mother has also been a big influence in shaping up her career as she writes songs and is a terrific singer. The audiences can know more about her forthcoming ventures through the exciting posts that are shared by the singer on her Instagram handle.
