

The Last 100% Organic Low Carb Meal On Earth Is Finally Here

MealBetix.com, an organic food lifestyle startup that is growing the only 100% Organic, low carb superfoods on earth, in the last little bit of soil left here that is truly 100% Organic.

California, Los Angeles, Jun 23, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - MealBetix.com, an organic food lifestyle startup, has announced its formal launch. MealBetix.com is dedicated to helping families eat truly 100% Organic food every day. At present, MealBetix.com is offering a monthly subscription to MealBetix, which means every family can receive MealBetix on time every single month, and never have to worry about reordering. And because MealBetix is for everyone, from fetus to senior citizen, everyone can enjoy MealBetix and experience the powerful benefits that come from eating the last truly 100% organic, low carb meal on earth.

According to “The Food Guru”, aka Dr. Darren Wayne, a Food Scientist and a best-selling author, who is the founder of MealBetix.com and the one who found the little bit of rare soil left here that’s still truly 100% Organic, said, “Food can heal you or it can harm you, and these days the food everyone eats does a lot more harm than any good, which is why I did not stop until I found soil that is still pure enough to grow the healthiest meals everyone can eat every day and at least regain some of their health back. I created MealBetix for all the Health Freedom Fighters here and their families who need real organic survival food.”

MealBetix is not only the healthiest organic, low carb meal, but also contains all the nutrition, from A-Z, including plenty of enzymes, plant probiotics, and more protein than a steak!
