

The Stoners Inspiration is Eminem and Michael Jackson

Two Twin Brothers as The Stoners are New Music Stars

Georgia, Atlanta, Jun 4, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Michael Stoner and Daniel Stoner, professionally known as The Stoners are based in Norfolk, VA. The two brother's genres of profession consist of Hip hop and r&b. They became inspired by legends such as Emieme, Michael Jackson, and 2pac. In college, the two educated themselves to become top audio engineers with dreams of going major. After releasing the single "Track Star Remix" to positive reviews on platforms such as Apple Music, Spotify, and Tidal, The Stoners gain an organic buzz on Instagram reaching a peak of 20.1k followers. Michael and Daniel are brothers from a family of seven, one mother and six boys. The Stoner's rap style is considered reality rap without profanity. This is something that stands them apart from the additional wave in music.
