The steamship Atlantica makes way to Boston, but dark shadows trail the ship, staying just out of sight beneath the waves. The ship's passengers seem unnaturally fixated, staring out to sea with a silent, desperate longing. The investigators' dreams are plagued by eerie underwater nightmares. And now, a passenger has been murdered.

Suspicion, hidden loyalties, and devious strategy rule the day! Unfathomable puts the players in command of a steamship, but not every player can be trusted. While monstrous Deep Ones stream forth from the crushing ocean depths, any player could secretly be a nefarious cultist or a horrifying hybrid Deep One. The investigators must take care not to turn their backs on anyone—it will take all their cunning to save their ship from a watery grave. Battle swarming Deep Ones, uncover the traitors, and steer the Atlantica safely home in Unfathomable!

2) Imperium: Classics - $28.47 (Preorder)

Formidable adversaries are arrayed against you. Your people stand ready. History beckons. In your hands lies the destiny of one of history's great civilizations. Under constant threat of attack, you must conquer new lands, oversee dramatic scientific and cultural advances, and lead your people into the era of empire. Expand too rapidly, and unrest will bring your civilization to its knees; build up too slowly, however, and you might find yourself a mere footnote of history. Imperium: Classics is a standalone game that contains the Carthaginian, Celt, Greek, Macedonian, Persian, Roman, Scythian, and Viking civilizations and an individual solo opponent behaving as each nation. It is fully compatible with Imperium: Legends for players wanting to expand their pool of civilizations even further.

3) Oath: Chronicles Of Empire & Exile - $96.00 (Preorder)

Oath: Chronicles of Empire and Exile is a one to a six-player strategy board game where players will guide the course of history in an ancient land. They might attempt to bolster the power of the Chancellor or scheme to bring the kingdom to ruin. The consequences of one game will ripple through those that follow, changing what resources and actions future players may have at their disposal and even altering the game's core victory condition.

4) Lost Ruins Of Arnak - $41.97 (Preorder)

Explore jungles, find artifacts, and discover the Lost Ruins of Arnak!

Players lead rival expeditions to a newly discovered island. Through a unique combination of worker placement and deckbuilding, each expedition attempts to uncover the lost island's secrets.

In addition to traditional deckbuilder effects, cards can also be used to place workers. Decks are small, and randomness is heavily mitigated by the wealth of tactical decisions offered on the game board. Building a solid resource base will be essential.

With a variety of worker actions, artifacts, and equipment cards, the setup for each game will be unique, encouraging players to explore new strategies to meet the challenge.

5) Dune: Imperium - $50.00

Deck-building meets worker placement in a new board game of galactic struggle. The iconic universe of Frank Herbert's Dune inspires a new generation of fans in the upcoming film from Legendary Entertainment, setting the stage for the first new Dune board game in decades. Dune - Imperium breaks new board game ground with an innovative design from Paul Dennen and the team at Dire Wolf behind the award-winning Clank! game series. How will you seize power? Lead a Great House to glory on the hostile planet Dune, where subtlety can be more important than strength. Purchase cards to increase your options, then strategically commit your resources for maximum gain. Military conflict & political intrigue provide many paths to victory. Harvest spice from the deep desert, and leverage your spoils into economic might. Gain influence with powerful factions who can aid your victory - or guarantee your doom. The choices are yours: the cards are dealt, and the Imperium awaits. Control the Spice. Control the Universe.
