Early Life

T.Ollyvar (Legal Name: Adewale Temitope Mosinmiloluwa) hails from Owo, Ondo State, Nigeria but was given birth in Ondo town, Ondo State, Nigeria which is his mother's hometown. He lived most of his early years in Ondo State including his primary school education up till secondary school. T.Ollyvar had been having musical inspirations since he was young. He was a drummer boy in his local church; RCCG Parish and also a part of the band boys in primary and secondary school. He plays the piano as well.

He started singing in 2013 in neighboring studios after he completed his senior secondary school education, he made a recording of a gospel song “Ore Ọfẹ” and some other practice songs.

In 2017, He recorded a Rap song with a music mate MightyN titled “Chronicle” while he was in Federal Polytechnic, Ile Oluji, this song travels back to how life had treated him from his young age up till that date, how he believed things had gotten better for him compared to he was and use to be in past times. Some notable lyrics from “Chronicle” includes

“thinking back to the time when I was a nobody, zero humans, never recognized as a somebody, hold school days, emi no ma fi se yeye stock(I was a laughing stock), like old stuff, they look at me like Amma dead boy”

He started taking music seriously in 2019 when he recorded his debut single “Baybie”, beats by El Skool and produced by Oliver D'Great but was released on YouTube on 01 September 2020. A love song talking about longing for someone whom our heart gets attracted to but maybe they aren't reciprocating it.

Lifestyle and Personality

T.Ollyvar had admitted to being an indoor type of person yet lively and social. In one of his statements in quotes.

"I wouldn't admit I am an introvert or an extrovert, it mostly depends on my mood, I could be indoor all day or could be out there making waves and having fun but most significantly, I enjoy my solitude, that's my only way to think and bring my thoughts to live. So if you'll ask me, I'll say, I'm on the bridge between being an introvert and an extrovert hahaha".

His favorite hobby as admitted is surfing the internet and pressing his computer.

"I like being on the web, surfing, most times reading and learning new things on it, I like games too and I like it when I bring things up from the scratch"

He is also a good writer has he admitted having a few books written by him but unpublished, some described as Journey to Heaven, Oliver's Sleep and Sweet, Porter's Crest, and others.

T.Ollyvar has a sideline in comedy and entertainment. He runs several social media groups and one of his major points is his Comedy group "Laugh Hub Africa" groups on WhatsApp since 2017.
