One of their customers, Mrs. Geller, said, "I have been looking for one of the best movers in Chicago but frankly, I was not impressed. However, one of my colleagues referred me to Vitesse Moving! I had a talk with them and booked them by taking a look at their website. They were punctual, brought their own equipment and packing materials, and were very professional. They were quick and took care of the routes as well. I asked them to help me with the unpacking as well. I hired complete services as I have a busy schedule. Needless to say that I recommend them to all my close ones. Brownie points for completely maintaining social distancing protocols."
