

A Little Indie? Or A Little Pop?

Beach Clinic's latest single "IFYOUWANTITIDONTBELIEVEIT" is the perfect nostalgic trip of the Summer.

California, Pico Rivera, Jul 30, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Falling just shy of 3-minutes, the track captures the vibe of the dog days season; while sonically serving as a bridge between the infectious energy of 80's new wave acts such as New Order and the infamously chic aesthetic of modern alternative acts like 1975. Starting with a guitar intro that lends itself to the sound of the band's native Southern California "IFYOUWANTITIDONTBELIEVEIT" builds up to an earworm of a chorus that is equally catchy as it is danceable. As the song comes to a close, arpeggios and delayed notes trail over the listener's head, as they echo the sounds of heartache trapped by youth.
