Rohit Kotyal is a YouTuber creates tech videos on his youtube since 2019. 1st transfer videos via WordPress, blogging, and tips or tricks.

Rohit Kotyal is an Indian Entrepreneur who resides in Una, he is a Website Developer and a founder of 'Theadmusic Services' (Media Company) and he is a helping hand for the influencers who want to grow their audience and their presence on Google, Yahoo, and Bing. Currently, if you explore for him on youtube and see that his channel is certified as a music creator. currently, you're questioning why youtube verifies its channel as a music creator or provides it a badge to verify a music note on their youtube channel.

Basically, Rohit Kotyal discharged his 1st audio recording on SoundCloud in 2020

however, once a short while he formally discharged that track on different music streaming platforms like google play music, apple music, youtube music, Spotify, and plenty of a lot of. That is why youtube formally validates its channel as a music creator.

Currently, Rohit Kotyal helps different freelance artists WHO need to verify on youtube. you've got helped over 48+ artists every and currently, they're confirming you on youtube further.

Apart from this Rohit Kotyal uses his official website theadmusic.in wherever he provides technical connected articles. Also, they receive guest postings or give pr services to their organization known as Theadmusic Services. Rohit Kotyal is currently an Associate in Nursing knowledgeable on the knowledge panel, the official artist's youtube channel
