

Akon Group of Industries become a pioneer in the airline industry and automation driverless car projects Founder Maharashtra, Mumbai, Jul 29, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - India-based start-up Akon Group of Industries International has made a tremendous impact on the global industry of airlines, automation driverless cars projects. Armed with crucial knowledge in the fields, the company has been successful at bagging many international projects. They have handled several multi-million dollar projects across the globe. The highly-trained and experienced members at the firm have never failed to deliver what they have promised.

The company has come a long way in spreading its grasp outside India. Akon Group of Industries is now into 7 countries, India, the US, UK, Germany, Singapore, UAE, and Australia. It has been recognized for its efforts in the international market with the fastest growing entrepreneur of the year 2020 in the USA. It now has more than 500 employees and over 60 interns worldwide.

Akon Group of Industries are also providing import-export and e-commerce services by spreading their legs in many countries and becoming one of the fastest-growing startups.

Akon Group of Industries was founded by young Indian entrepreneur Anurag Kumar. With his fast experience and expertise, he has established a trustworthy and reliable global platform acing whatever he comes across. The company has become a significant figure in the international aviation business. Under the thoughtful guidance of the founder and the CEO, the firm has achieved the greatest highest. To know more visit their website <https://akoninternational.wpcdn-b.com/>.

Media Contact

CRAYTONIX

info@craytonix.com

Source : Akon Group of Industries

See on IssueWire