New Jersey, Newark, Jul 29, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Out of all the subgenres of hip hop, trap music has achieved the most due to its versatile melodic approach and universal resonance. Supremely talented and promising hip hop artist Mr.runitup3 has stepped into the scene with his incredible addictive and penetrating rhythmic soundtracks. He has dished out another masterpiece, 'Target

Practice' (Ruff Mix), joining forces with his fellow hip hop artist Dmulabst. The slow-paced and serene rhythmic flow rich in amazing 808 beats creates the perfect canvas for the artists' brilliant vocal performance. The soothing symphony wrapped around the sublime libretto establishes an atmosphere of pure acoustic bliss.

The multi-talented musician has been an avid fan of hip hop from a very young age. Eventually, he got bored with the monotony of contemporary hip hop. So, he decided to take the matters into his own hands and create his own music. He embedded different elements from other musical genres and formed a brilliant trap soundscape. He has been making music since he was only 10 but entered the professional music scene just a year ago. Within this very short period, the gifted New Jersey trap artist Mr.runitup3 has achieved the greatest heights in the current music industry.

The aspiring artist is all about creating original and authentic trap music that is straight from his heart. He derives most of his inspirations from his own life experiences and the world around him. Currently working with the production house Moneyreckless, Mr.runitup3 has released a brand-new track, 'Target Practice' (Ruff Mix) featuring Dmulabst. The track features his unapologetic vocal performance breathing life into the thought-provoking lyrical illustration. The expressive lyrics give the audience something to relate to in their most vulnerable moments. He has shown the same thematic dexterity in his other songs, 'Forever Heartless' featuring dmula g – g vultch and 'Prayers Up' featuring Vulture as well.
