Colorado, Colorado Springs, Jul 9, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The tenderness in the flour, when blended with the sweetness of granulated sugar topped with the scrumptious flavorings, is what results in an authentic Amy's Donuts.

Fully functional in almost 5 locations (Albuquerque, Denton, Columbus, Colorado Springs, and Tucson). Amy's Donuts is an independently controlled and managed donut shop. The professional team of bakers prides themselves in creating some exceedingly impressive and out-of-the-world donuts.

What's New? Amy's Donuts is all set for their upcoming launching of the stores in North Colorado Springs, CO, and Lewisville, TX. The same rich and appetizing flavors in the cities renowned for Garden of Gods and Lake Dallas respectively.

Experimenting with raw ingredients in its own kitchen Amy's Donuts assures daily prepared, fresh and flavorful donuts. Be it the Blueberry Old Fashion, Almond Banana Caramel, or Andes Mint what makes Amy's Donuts extraordinary are the absolutely distinctive and delectable flavors you'll never encounter anywhere else.

Apart from selling donuts they also host field trips for a count of 15 children at a time as a contribution to the children's delightful memories.

Don't get driven by their name, because they have much more in their menu than just the donuts. Amy's Donuts is preserving some traditional flavors through its heavenly Apple Fritters, Cinnamon Glazed Twists, and Cinnamon Rolls.
