

Bluff City Properties Offers Free Winona Student Housing Scholarship

A leading property management company in Winona MN is offering an exclusive grant to WSU students.

Minnesota, Winona, Jul 19, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Bluff City Properties (WSYOU) is a leading Winona property management company dedicated to providing quality housing to students enrolled at the Winona State University.

Kevin Brady, Ph.D., is the founder of Bluff City Properties and is also a WSU alumnus. WSYOU was founded three decades ago to respond to a request to the community from then WSU President Stark to improve off-campus residential options for WSU students. Today, WSYOU is the top choice for finding adequate and affordable student housing in Winona, Mn.

According to WSYOU, paying for comfortable and secure student housing is an additional burden to those attending college. Housing is tied closely to the quality of life. WSYOU created the Free Housing Scholarship to help deserving students find a great place to stay and study in one of WsYOU residential properties.

The grant offers a year of free rent at Quad 2.0. The Quad 2.0 features deluxe, furnished rooms located minutes away from Winona State University. Renters enjoy private, single rooms from across the WSU campus.

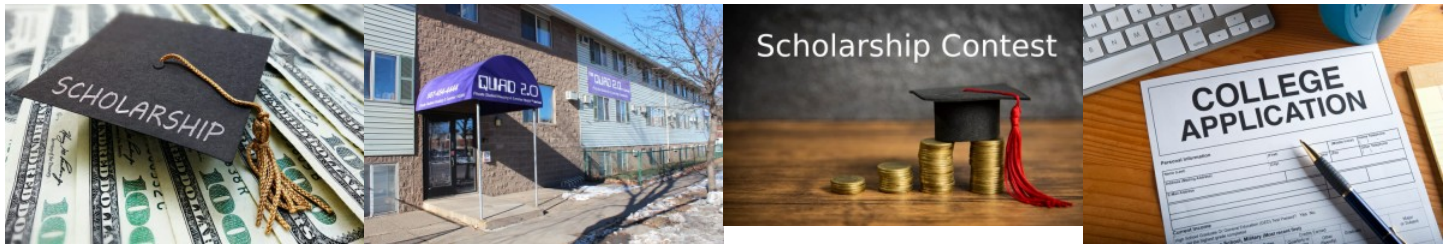

The WSYOU Free Housing Scholarship is open to currently enrolled WSU students with a GPA of at least 3.4. Any full-time student who plans to study at the WSU and live in Winona the following year is eligible to apply. The deadline for application is May 1st of every year.

Applicants must submit an essay (3-5 pages) about the importance of the scholarship to the student's desire to use their education to help shape and change the world for the better. Interested individuals may email office@wsyou.com with the subject line “Attn: WSYOU Housing Scholarship” to apply and ask questions about the grant.
