Webbing, Jul 13, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Featuring a piece of multi-genre music and blissful vocal skills, upcoming artist Hoppel van Grevenbrucke is spreading his musical skills through his recent single 'Pictures That I See in Front of Me'. Written by Volkmar Peter Günthel, the track contains a simple yet intriguing subject matter of dealing with life. Hoppel has an amazing voice that helps him to meander through any kind of musical arrangement and adapts with it like a genius. His vocal skills are truly above the top that churns out the blistering essence of rock. However, it is not completely just rock as the artist likes to incorporate different elements of other genres in his track which make it sound more dynamic and unique.

Hailing from Deutschland, Hoppel is creating a musical revolution in the German music scene. He developed his knack for music at a very young age and started nurturing his skills while playing in the school music group and brass bands in 1969. He studied classical music in college and also played in pub bands and dance covers all over the country. His talent, skills, and musical creativity reflects through each musical release. Some of his other tracks like, 'Rosa Rote Kuh', 'So Wie Du Mich Verzaubert Hast', 'HO Kati', etc are some of the best German tracks.

Hoppel also released an EP named 'Hoppel's 5' that contains five exquisite tracks. Throughout his musical career, he released many singles, and 'Pictures That I See in Front of Me' is the greatest among them.
