

Everything will come under online - Jahidul Islam

Shariatpur, Palang, Jul 9, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Jahidul Islam Said,

People are now thinking of alternatives at this time of the pandemic. Those who are already freelancing or e-commerce are now surviving. Everyone should move forward with thinking in a timely.

When it comes to doing something online, it is still seen badly in our society, but not far from that day, everything will come under online.

Hon'ble Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina visioned Digital Bangladesh where internet service reached every remote area.

We, the youth, can change the future of Bangladesh, if we put the skills we have into good work, success will surely come.

Now jobs have become a golden deer in our country, so we the young generation can do online freelancing and become entrepreneurs without wasting time on jobs.

"If you don't value your time, others won't. Stop wasting your time and talent on bad things. Only then will it be successful."
