PTSD A SOLDIER’S REVENGE

California, Hollywood, Jul 20, 2021 (Issuewire.com) -

PTSD: A Soldier’s Revenge, a military film made by military veterans, continues to build the cast with Hollywood Stars. Golden Globe Nominee Tom Sizemore has officially joined the production as Tom, Army Retired Colonel.

Sizemore will star alongside Hollywood Actors Daniel Baldwin (known for his role as Detective Beau Felton in the popular NBC TV series Homicide: Life on the Street), Robert LaSardo (known for his portrayal of Escobar Gallardo on the FX hit series Nip/Tuck), and Oksana Lada (Sopranos).

Sizemore is a Golden Globe Nominee and Hollywood Veteran Actor, best known for his roles in films such as Natural Born Killers, Heat, Black Hawk Down, and Steven Spielberg’s five-time Academy Award-winning film Saving Private Ryan.

A film based on true events. A Story about Duty, Loyalty, Honor, Respect, Integrity, and Personal Courage... A Story with a Purpose. There are people who come home from the war and want to talk about their pain, but no one wants to listen. Imagine being in an unimaginable situation and having to do the unthinkable. Per US Statistics every single day, 22 veterans take their own lives. That's a suicide every 65 minutes. There are over 2.3 Million Military Veterans from Iraq/Afghanistan Wars... OVER 20% suffer from PTSD.

In this story Anaid, a US ARMY Combat Medic returns home from a horrific tour of duty in the Middle East that leaves her mentally scarred. After arriving back to her California roots, she attempts to return to a normal life but her constant PTSD nightmares, paranoia, self-doubts, deceit, and family conflicts drive her to make a decision to fight to reclaim her life or give up. She chooses a soldier's revenge.

The Soldier, above all other people, prays for peace, for he must suffer and bear the deepest wounds and scars of war (Douglas MacArthur)
