PTSD A SOLDIER’S REVENGE

California, Hollywood, Jul 20, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - PTSD: A Soldier’s Revenge, a military film made by military veterans, continues to build the cast with Hollywood Stars. Actor Robert LaSardo has officially joined the production as Frank, Anaid’s husband.

LaSardo will star alongside Hollywood Actors Daniel Baldwin (known for his role as Detective Beau Felton in the popular NBC TV series Homicide: Life on the Street), Tom Sizemore (Golden Globe nominee best known for Black Hawk Down), and Oksana Lada (Sopranos)

LaSardo is an Award-Winning Writer, Hollywood Veteran Actor and has starred in over 100 films in his career to date. He is best known for his portrayal of Escobar Gallardo on the FX hit series Nip/Tuck. He has also appeared in the Warner Brothers film The Mule, playing opposite Clint Eastwood.

A film based on true events. A Story about Duty, Loyalty, Honor, Respect, Integrity, and Personal Courage... A Story with a Purpose. There are people who come home from the war and want to talk about their pain, but no one wants to listen. Imagine being in an unimaginable situation and having to do the unthinkable. Per US Statistics every single day, 22 veterans take their own lives. That's a suicide every 65 minutes. There are over 2.3 Million Military Veterans from Iraq/Afghanistan Wars... OVER 20% suffer from PTSD.

In this story Anaid, a US ARMY Combat Medic returns home from a horrific tour of duty in the Middle East that leaves her mentally scarred. After arriving back to her California roots, she attempts to return to a normal life but her constant PTSD nightmares, paranoia, self-doubts, deceit, and family conflicts drive her to make a decision to fight to reclaim her life or give up. She chooses a soldier's revenge.

The Soldier, above all other people, prays for peace, for he must suffer and bear the deepest wounds and scars of war (Douglas MacArthur)
