James Brown Negatives Found and In Auction

Available from The Estate of Lily Ana Stuer on Ebay

Texas, Dallas, Jul 9, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Original Negatives of James "The Godfather of Soul" Brown found and now for auction on Ebay.

All proceeds go to The Estate of Lily Ana Stuer which was created to help victims of divorce crimes. The Estate is also making a 10% donation to Paralyzed Veterans of America, an additional 5% donation to Dare to Dream Children's Foundation, and a 5% contribution of the final bid amount to BACA (Bikers Against Child Abuse).

These are one of a kind Mr. James "Godfather of Soul" Brown negatives while he was playing at Nick's here in Texas. Some of the photos even have Rev. Al Sharpton in the background on stage. Over 12 more AMAZING and unseen photos of Mr. James Brown on stage still yet to be seen outside of auction!!!!! Not all of the photos have even been developed yet. These were taken by professional event photographer Mrs. Deborah Ann Longoria-Stuer somewhere in the late 80s or early 90s.

Additional event photography of:

Sting 1985
Robert Palmer
Budweiser Fest
Fathead Newman Show
Larry "Bud" Melman
Vanity Fair (used to play with Prince) are also being sold on Ebay. RAW Negatives, which contain never-before-seen images of these artists, are expected to yield money for donations and victims of divorce crimes in Dallas, TX.

Once purchased your own copyrights 100% on print and new digital platforms.
