

Lauren Davidson Finds The Good with New Single "Silver Linings "

Tennessee, Nashville, Jul 6, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The urban country singer-songwriter Lauren Davidson isn't a stranger to the country music industry. On Friday (7/2), Lauren released her feel-good single "Silver Linings."

With releases, "Live In The Light," "Backfire," and "Thinking About You," Davidson has made a statement in 2021. All recent and upcoming singles a part of her upcoming EP project, "Hindsight is 2020."

Blending New York City vibes with the rich tones of contemporary country music, she has created a genre all her own, and audiences and critics just can't get enough. Lauren's been one of the first country artists to perform at Lady Gaga's father's restaurant in New York – Joanne Trattoria.

Never one to forget her roots, Davidson has created "Urban Country Jam" (UCJ). UCJ presents country music mini-festivals, set in major Cities, that join together emerging country artists with fans and industry professionals, providing artists with an important platform to garner the exposure they deserve.

In the past year, Lauren's been featured on several editorials including Apple's Best New Songs, Spotify's New Music Nashville, and Apple's New In Country playlist editorial. She has made countless radio appearances, played shows with Old Dominion, Carly Pearce, Russell Dickerson, Maddie & Tae, Michael Ray, and performed at the creme of New York venues, Madison Square Garden, as part of PBR's "Unleash The Beast" tour.
