Moonlight Manifestation Program although a fairly new product but asserts to transform your income & your life, while you sleep and all you need to do is listen to these frequencies while you sleep for the next seven days.

But, is it possible? Well, that's what we will reveal to you in this Moonlight manifestation review based on our experiences of seven days.

What is Moonlight Manifestation?

Moonlight Manifestation is an audio program consisting of vibrational sound layering of 32 sound frequency layers that impact the Thalamus located in the center of the brain and transmit an "overnight command" to your subconscious mind when you sleep.

Based on the Dream Yogic principles, the creator proclaims that when we sleep, the REM (Rapid Eye Movement) sleeping cycle continues for about 60 minutes around 2 a.m. It is believed that this is when the thalamus becomes super active, and a chemical that quietens any sound gains entry into the human brain.

Moonlight Manifestation helps to turn your conscious mind 'off' while you lie in deep slumber and 'silences' your apprehensions, fears, doubts, and other negative emotions. The subconscious mind remains completely open and active, resulting in the manifestation of your desires.

It is suggested you try this FREE track called DREAM TUNING which we have arranged from the owners of the Moonlight Manifestation Program to help you see for yourself how it works and transform lives. (recommended to use it for at least 7-days to see significant results)

Who Created Moonlight Manifestation?

Moonlight Manifestation Program was designed by a manifestation and spiritual guide, Alexander Wilson.

The thought of designing this kind of product occurred to Alexander when a close friend of his called Jess, had landed in a trouble and faced unfortunate events continually.

Jess started facing shortcomings in her life due to marital discord with her husband Erik. Things started to become worse and her professional life got disrupted as she was fired, all because of the machinations of a person called Chad, the Head of the Sales. She even had to undergo the trauma of a divorce.

Seeing her aghast and completely broken, Alexander decided to help his friend and help her come out of this hell-like situation.

To help Jess, Alexander decided to practice a bedtime ritual to see if manifestation occurred in this manner. He saw blurred, hazy images of a monkey, bearing resemblance to Lord Hanuman who is a god of the Hindu Mythology, and then a picture of a woman playing the harmonium and singing 'Jai Sita Ram... Jai Jai Hanuman' floated in his dream.

Alexander learned of the dream yogic technique from Melanie. Well, she is the girl as Alexander claimed to see in his dream. When he learned of the secret dream yogic technique devised by the Himalayan yogis, Alexander used the scientific principle of activation of the 'Thalamus' in the brain and thus created 'The 2 a.m. Moonlight Manifestation Window'.
