

Music Trio G-Fly Delivers a Flamboyant Scope of Contemporary Hip Hop with their Songs

Upcoming music trio G-Fly recently came out with a series of songs that conceptualizes modern-day hip hop into an incredible spontaneous performance.

Ontario, Toronto, Jul 9, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Hip hop and rap trio G-Fly is flying high with their newly released song, 'Go Hard' from the album, SWAM. The song is already making an incredible audience engagement as it presents some of the best components of modern-day hip hop and rap. All artists contribute in a balance to the song thus elevating the creative versatility to a whole new level. The song stands for liberation and allows the mass to infuse the same idea in their lives. In their other song, 'Jokes', the artists are prolific complementing and supporting each other's natural instincts.

The trio is a creative collaboration between artists J Good, Jullius Ice, and Knock'em. Each has their own individual styles and brings an assortment of eccentric flavors in the song, 'Go Hard' as well. Their collective effort has opened a new scope in hip hop allowing artists to experiment with their own understanding of the genre. Their music is represented through the label house GflyEnt which aims at taking their musical act to the global platform.

Hip hop trio G-Fly hail from Toronto, Canada, and are rapidly becoming a known name in the local scene. Their collaborative project, called SWAM came out in 2020 with many other songs such as 'Swam', 'Fur Coats', 'Stainz', and 'Level Up'. Their exhilarating style and energy uplift the dimensions of music and allow the audience to experience the same thrill.
