New York, New York City, Jul 28, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - As a board-certified family physician, Dr. Lucietto-Sieradzki began caring for under-served patients in 2001. She was inspired to open Your Family Doctor in Belvidere, Illinois in 2005 to provide high-quality, personalized care.

She is dedicated to providing the proper healthcare services to address her patients' concerns. She never stops seeking solutions and is ready to call on specialists if needed. She has privileges at Swedish American Hospital, OSF Saint Anthony Medical Center, and Beloit Memorial Hospital. She also works part-time at Rosecrance substance abuse center and volunteers as the ring-side doctor for the Patriots Boxing Club.

During the first years of her career, Dr. Lucietto-Sieradzki spent her time using skills she gained through her Bachelor of Science in Materials Science Engineering from Northwestern University in 1989. She then followed her passion and graduated from Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine in Chicago. She focused on family medicine and completed training at St. Francis Hospital and Ravenswood-Illinois Masonic Hospital in the Chicago area.

Thereafter, she attained board certification through the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Having practiced throughout the region, Dr. Lucietto-Sieradzki is licensed in Illinois, Wisconsin, Louisiana, and Guam. She became certified in homeopathic medicine in 2015 as part of her dedication to lifelong learning.

Most recently, in 2020, she attained board certification in addiction medicine through the American Board of Preventive Medicine, which was established to promote the health and safety of the American people through high standards in the certification and maintenance of certification in the profession of preventive health.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

Among Dr. Lucietto-Sieradzki's most notable achievements include the Patients' Choice Award (2012, 2011, 2010) and Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2013, 2012, 2011, 2010).
