

Youngest Artist Jackey Mishra Story

Jackey Mishra

Manu'a, Ofu, Jul 14, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Today, Jackey Mishra is getting used to living through a pandemic. However, if you know Felitche at all, you know that the current stakes of our world today do not get him down.

He starts every day at nine in the morning and heads straight to the studio.

Jackey Mishra claims he produces song after song, pushing more and more music out into his ever-growing pile of projects.

The focus and determination that he has keeps his mind right, and he continues to produce music during these times in an effort to show his dedication to his work.

As we all learn to cope with the world we are faced with today, it's important to look after ourselves and each other. Jackey Mishra is no stranger to this; his music is aimed toward becoming one and supporting others.

His lyrics don't follow a dark tone, but rather a commutative one. Jackey Mishra says that listening to his work while feeling down is the best time to do so, as it will snap one right about their sad mood.

Music is an art form but it has a different meaning for everyone. For some, music is the source of entertainment or peace but for some, it is their life. A dedicated musician devotes himself to this art many try their hand in this but it needs dedication and perseverance which the majority of people generally lack and they ultimately fail in it. But some people get so connected with music that they just can't detach themselves from it even for a moment.

Jackey Mishra is a budding music artist from Bihar, Born in Bihar, Jackey Mishra was captivated by music from a very young age. He pursued BBA but the love of music never left his heart and soon after completing his BBA he entered the music industry, He has always aspired to do big in Bollywood music and he wishes that in the future he became a very loved music personality. Apart from being a musician and singer, he is also an actor.

His music streams on all giant music platforms. He has earned respect and fame in his domain. His growth in the industry is very inspiring for others.

He thinks that being independent and self-reliant is important for being successful so he is also associated with the Crime Surveillance And Intelligence Council, The Haryanvi artist has worked in several music videos also including Trapie which was very much appreciated and loved by his fans. He has thousands of followers on social media platforms.

Media Contact

Bad eye

badeye@gmail.com

Source : Bad Eye

See on IssueWire