Bond - In Isolation

A short film by Sonia Kohli, director of Kunishka Productions. A film that tells a tale of horror and a tale of friendship in isolation.

Dhruv has just moved into a new house and has just then been asked to isolate himself as has been in touch with a positive covid case. The story tells how he survives with limited food, basic necessities, and a broken phone. The story boasts about his desperation to reach out to his best friend Kabir but all he feels is someone else's presence in the house. It unfolds how he spends his days in isolation.
