New York, New York City, Aug 26, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Specializing in primary care, Anne is a board-certified family nurse practitioner & a board-certified psychiatric-mental health nurse practitioner. She works with CLECO Primary Care Network in Shelby, North Carolina.

CLECO Primary Care Network is a non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization established in 1994 by a team of local health care physicians with a purpose to serve the general community, underserved, uninsured, and low-income population. Its mission is to actively coordinate, integrate, and improve access to quality primary and preventive healthcare services, including the medically underserved citizens of Cleveland County and surrounding communities, regardless of their ability to pay.

Academically, Anne graduated with her nursing degree (Family Nurse Practitioner program) from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1984.

Certified through the American Nurses Credentialing Center, she is an active member of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners and a National Certified Medical Examiner.

A Board-Certified Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP-BC) holds board certification and provides continuing and comprehensive healthcare for the individual and family across all ages, genders, diseases, and body systems. FNP's maintain patient records, perform physical exams, order or perform diagnostic tests, prescribe medications, develop treatment plans, as well as treat acute and chronic illnesses, conditions, and injuries that fall under primary care.

A Board-Certified Psychiatric-Mental Health Nurse Practitioner (PMHNP-BC) is an advanced practice nurse that holds board certification and seeks to improve mental health care and the overall health status of communities.

On a more personal note, Anne attributes her success to her dedication to the profession and helping people feel better.
