

Daniel DiCriscio Takes Us For A Ride in his New Music Video Debut of BLONDEMIC

Multi-talented musical artist Daniel DiCriscio states “I’m back in the house” in his new music video BLONDEMIC

California, Los Angeles, Aug 6, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The Award-Winning DiCriscio is back on track with the worldwide release of his new music video BLONDEMIC.

BLONDEMIC encourages people to go out and party again and get back to being happy after what we've all been through in the past year and a half.

The video, which premieres on all major platforms on August 6, features DiCriscio driving through the streets of LA in a red convertible with his signature long blonde platinum hair blowing in the wind, to glamorous shots showcasing his distinct style, and a drenched wet rain shower scene meant to signify being reborn in the new world we're living in today.

DiCriscio says that he wanted to write a song that reflects what we've all been through since the beginning of the Covid-19 pandemic and how we need to regain our happiness once again. "I wrote this song during the pandemic and it was originally called "Pandemic" but one night I made a hasty change of title because of the negativity of that word and said to myself "BLONDEMIC", now that is fun!", states DiCriscio.

DiCriscio proclaims, "I'm Back" in his commanding voice at the beginning of the video, and the post-pandemic era fuels the song's lyrics, "Your vaccination is your invitation to party". DiCriscio also states, "I'm a people person, I love people, and this isolation chamber we have been put in can absolutely have a detrimental effect on a lot of us as a whole. People need people. People need to smile. People need to feel human again."

DiCriscio's previous songs and music videos have been featured on top charts and reviewed in Billboard Magazine. He has opened live for Grace Jones at Paramount Studios Hollywood and performed in nightclub scenes in Los Angeles to New York and abroad.
