Like her Anglo-Indian heritage, her musical influences are diverse, from folk, to rock, to pop, jazz, theatre, classical and choral. She has performed in musical theatre, rock, dance, and jazz bands around Hong Kong for years.

In the last 2 years, Deborah has produced as many albums, performing her music live across HK, including on RTHK radio and TV.

the non-conformist

Deborah was raised in a traditional society, by an untraditional family, in which no topic was taboo and debates on social issues were standard dinner fare. From a young age, she clearly understood her role in speaking out against injustices, and her career trajectory and creative works reflect these values. She expresses her truth in a spirit of fairness and justice, regardless of peer pressure and public opinion.

"...her singing touches the hearts of many. " Be ready for her new song which is releasing on 28th august 2021
