Join an amazing musical journey with Robert Day and The Hoosier Blue as they have come up with the latest track 'Too Strong', an example of urban contemporary blue.

Hobart, Aug 24, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Featuring a jazz-soaked musical arrangement and invigorating grooves, Robert Day and The Hoosier Blue has come up with its latest track 'Too Strong'. The track churns out the authentic essence of contemporary blues music that consists of retro grooves along with modern improvisations. Clean and dicey, the musical arrangement is finely calibrated and enriched piano, guitar, trumpet, and fine percussion. The track is a wonderful piece of work that both musically and lyrically. Well written and justified, the track contains a lot of energy and optimism through its lyrical approach. The artist has wonderfully crafted this musical treat for all kinds of listeners.

Hailing from Indiana, Robert developed his passion for music at a very young age and nurtured his talent as he grew up. At the age of eleven, he received his first bass guitar from his uncle and sparked his persuasion. He is greatly inspired by John Coltrane, BB King, Eric Clapton, Muddy Waters, and many others and bringing back the reminiscence of that era and flavors. He has performed in various bands and live performances until he made, Robert Day and The Hoosier Blue in 1991. He has performed across the world at various blues music festivals in Northwest Indiana to Japan.

The latest track 'Too Strong' is creating a huge buzz in the contemporary blues industry. The track is appearing in the latest album 'Choices' with eight other tracks like, 'All Night', 'The Man', 'You Said', 'Black Ghost', and many others.
