Together Corey Lee Barker and Kathryn Shipley penned this song. Shipley says, "I am really excited about this song and the video, but the best part of it all has been to be able to co-write with multi-award-winning songwriter out of Nashville and whom now I consider a good friend, Corey Lee Barker! For this song "Life is Good," we both thought the same thing, in the fact that, so many songs as of late, have been driven towards, doing better, being better which, I totally get we want to spread that message often... But I just wanted to have one moment of just saying hey "Life is Good" I know there are storms and brokenness in our world, and so much more BUT let's find the "good." No, it is not perfect, but I am so thankful for so many things right now! God continues to lead me and bless me. My grandchild is safe and blossoming with me and my family... I am growing personally and professionally ... I get to do what I love. Then the best part for me? Doing another music video to show another side of the song through visuals... really gives the song another creative piece to love. I am thankful for my team at Cavalla Records that supports all my crazy ideas and in a short amount of time being with them, we have done wonderful things in the Indie music world, and we are just getting started. Stay tuned y'all!"

"Life is Good was written about enjoying the things that you have and the people you get to share them with. It is easy to get caught up in wanting something better or more. We often need to remind ourselves we have way more than we deserve and that family and friends trump large bank accounts any day of the week. Life is genuinely good my friends!", says Corey Lee Barker.
