Throughout her academic career, Dr. Berlari attended medical school at the National University of Rosario in Argentina, and in 2002, she graduated top 10 of her class. After moving to the United States and finishing a year of research in the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Iowa, she completed her internship at the University of Iowa Hospital and Clinics.

She then relocated to Florida, finishing her residency in family medicine at Jackson Memorial Hospital. From there, she pursued a fellowship in geriatric medicine at Banner Boswell Medical Center in Sun City, Arizona.

An active member of the American Academy of Family Physicians and the American Academy of Anti-Aging Medicine, Dr. Berlari holds triple board certification in family medicine, geriatric medicine, and anti-aging and functional medicine.

A local speaker for multiple radio programs and TV shows, she is most grateful for the opportunity to treat patients, making a difference in their lives, and helping them achieve wellness.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

Outside of the office, Dr. Berlari enjoys spending time with her family, gardening, and outdoor activities in her time off. She is fluent in both English and Spanish.
