

Revive your energy with Mind Chasm and its latest ebullient metal track, 'Cycles'

Talented metal band from Chicago, Mind Chasm has dropped its latest single 'Cycles'. It is a two-piece metal band that can captivate every kind of listener.

Illinois, Chicago, Aug 3, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Bringing back the classic metal energy along with amazing musical arrangement, Mind Chasm has come up with the latest single 'Cycles'. The track is revolving at the epitome of the metal music scene by building a bridge between the new and the origins. A finely calibrated musical arrangement keeps evolving as the track progresses with a fine balance of grit and weight. Infectious chords of electric guitar, bass, and distortion make the track heavily engaging that can stir inside. An adequate amount of spook and growl helps to build the dark ambiance and tension. However, its poetic lyricism and relatable approach to the listeners make it enjoyable for everyone.

Hailing from Chicago, IL, this band is the greatest musical project formed by Matt Schneider and Ed Nudd who are not only great musicians but also long-time friends. They have been performing together for more than 20 years now and have impressed listeners with their talent, skill, and creativity. Some of their previous projects and solo ventures came out to be truly inspiring like The Cruisers, Negligent Genocide, Catamount, The Glass Hour, etc to name some. After all these years of experience and working together, they finally decided to come up with their own band, Mind Chasm. Matt and Ed both are greatly inspired by Megadeth, Iron Maiden, Judas Priest, and many other legendary metal bands and bringing back the classic taste with a bit of creativity. From the beginning to the end, the overall musical experience is emphasized on dicey riffs and melodically intense singing. Chasm is bringing back the classic metal era with a dash of individuality.

The latest track 'Cycles' is a great example of how much hard-working and dedication have been put into creating such amazing music. The single appears in the latest project 'Divided Singles' which consists of two powerful tracks. The other track, 'Self-Divide' also offers listeners soundscape with is favorite for the headbangers. An ample dose of energy and a positive attitude keeps brimming from both singles. This band is looking forward to the release of more tracks in the coming days.
